Sir,

Sub: Umapati Rao Sri M - Acting District Veterinary Officer - Completion of probation - Proposals

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.5041 Development dated 13.10.49.

Sri M. Umapati Rao, Acting District Veterinary Officer, Bellary has completed his probation in category 6 of the Madras Animal Husbandry Service (District Veterinary Officers) on 25.10.51 afternoon, the date of his first appointment to the service being 26.10.49 forenoon. He has not availed himself of any leave other than casual during the period of his probation.

2. He has passed the following special tests.

(i) Account Test for Executive Officers
(ii) Departmental Test (Civil Veterinary Department Manual)
(iii) Second class language test (Tamil)

3. According to rule 12 (6) of the General rules for the Madras State and Subordinate Services, where tests in two of certain specified languages are prescribed in the special rules, a person whose mother tongue is one of the languages so specified shall be required to pass the test only in one other of such languages. The exemption from passing the test in Telugu which is the mother tongue of Sri M. Umapati Rao may be granted since he reports that he can read and write Telugu. I am satisfied that Sri M. Umapati Rao can read and write his mother tongue, Telugu His work and conduct during the period of probation have been satisfactory.

4. In these circumstances, I recommend ~~that~~ that Sri M. Umapathi Rao, acting District Veterinary Officer Bellary may be exempted from passing the second class language test in Telugu prescribed under Rule 10(a) of the Special Rules for Madras Animal Husbandry Service and that Government may be pleased to declare him to have satisfactorily completed his probation in category 6 of the Madras Animal Husbandry Service on the afternoon of 25.10.51.

The confidential dossier of the officer is sent herewith for favour of reference and return.

Yours faithfully,
